

Evaluation Grid

Structure (40)	The text includes a conclusion, a body and an introduction.	/10
	The topic is well-defined in the introduction.	/10
	Each paragraph contains only one main idea.	/5
	The paragraphs follow each other in logical order.	/5
	The conclusion is complete and reviews the essay's arguments.	/10
Argumentation and style (65)	The text has an original title.	/5
	The introduction begins with a captivating sentence.	/5
	The text bears a tone that evokes the reader's attention and maintains the reader's interest.	/10
	The student makes original reflections.	/10
	The ideas are supported and not simply stated.	/10
	The student develops a critical point of view with the help of coherent and convincing arguments and with the help of relevant evidence.	/15
	The student answers the question.	/10
Documentation (30)	The student uses a variety of sources of information to support their arguments (books, articles, reliable Internet sources).	/10
	The documents used are cited.	/10
	The work contains a bibliography that is complete.	/10
Quality of the language (40)	The student adequately uses punctuation.	/10
	The vocabulary is varied and well used.	/10
	There are no spelling mistakes.	/10
	The rules of grammar and syntax are respected.	/10
Text format (25)	Each paragraph is separated by a space.	/5
	The endnotes and the bibliography are correctly formatted.	/10
	The essay contains between 900 and 1100 words. < 800 words → (0/10) 800-900 words → (5/10) 1100-1200 words → (5/10) > 1200 words → (0/10)	/10
TOTAL		/200